

Job notice for SCPGA Communications Manager

The Southern California PGA is looking for a qualified individual to fill the staff position of Communications Manager. The Communications Manager will office at the SCPGA offices in Beaumont, California.

The SCPGA Communications Manager is responsible for: promotion of SCPGA golf professionals; publication of the Section's PROgram Magazine; all Section publications; develop signage, etc.; Section photographer and videographer; Public relations and media relations including releases and newsworthy stories; social media; information technology; scpga.com; assisting with special events such as meetings, seminars, consumer trade shows, allied meetings and expositions, Play Golf America Day, Golf 2.0, growth of the game programs and Section Championships.

This person must have an understanding of the game of golf as well as computer experience and knowledge of information technology and programs as well as written and verbal skills, experience with graphic design, business presentations, experience as a videographer and arts, print media and publications.

Benefits include a 401-K plan, health insurance, vacation and sick-pay. Annual compensation is expected be $45,000 to $50,000.

The application deadline for qualified candidates will be Thursday, January 26, 2012. Submit resumes, via email only, to Southern California PGA Executive Director Tom Addis at scpgata@aol.com.